

Our Vision for Jacob

We wish to ensure:

- Jacob has friends, real relationships. People who spend time with Jacob because they genuinely like him and care about him, who like to hang out with him
- Jacob has an interesting learning environment where expectations are high but realistic, where Jacob is challenged and experiences success
- Jacob is part of the community, where he knows many people and is known by many
- Jacob is accepted and valued and always treated with respect and dignity
- Jacob always lives with people who care about him - his family, partner or friends. We don't want Jacob to live with paid workers, or strangers
- Jacob has interesting and rewarding things to do. His life is rich and varied, where Jacob is able to follow and explore his own interests
- Jacob is happy healthy and safe
- Jacob is seen as an individual with unique gifts and strengths. We want others to appreciate his fun loving personality, his great sense of humour, and his thoughtfulness and sensitive side.
