Could be used in house sharing websites or similar where there is more space

I am looking for a woman to share a house in (location). If you take up this opportunity you will be sharing with me, a 32 year old woman who has a disability, is very social, loves being with people and loves all types of music, doing pottery, gym etc.

I am looking for someone who

- Is fun to be around and can help me to make my house a happy and fun place
- Has a good sense of humour
- Enjoys having friends over to visit
- Is a confident person with a sense of fun
- Has excellent communication

In exchange for the Free Rent I would like you to

- Help me to cook dinner 3-4 nights per week and enjoy the meal together
- Be able to spend the majority of weekday evenings at home, including sleeping overnight. This can be flexible.
- Most importantly, help me turn my house into a home.

Other things you should know:

- My support needs are met by a range of people in my life. You will not be responsible for these.
- I have a very supportive and loving family and group of people to help me in the smooth running of my life. I am hoping that you will feel included in my circle of friends.
- Apart from the times when you commit to being around (for some dinners and week nights) you are free to do whatever you normally do.
- References and a police check are required.

If you are interested, please make contact and I will tell you more! (Insert email address)
