Empowering, connecting, and building opportunities for inclusive communities where people with disability thrive

Friday 30 May and Saturday 31 May 2025

Calling all NSW families to Novotel Wollongong Northbeach

About the gathering

This event will bring people with disability and their families together for meaningful conversations, sharing experiences, and practical strategies to advocate for inclusion and drive positive change in our communities.

By connecting with others who understand the journey, you'll build lasting relationships and find mutual support that can encourage you along the way.

Who is this for?

Families who advocate with, and at times, on behalf of a family member with disability. The event welcomes people with disability, their friends and allies who contribute to their lives, included in the community. This event is not aimed at people in the role of professional support worker or service provider.

Registrations open to families in NSW.
