Strength in Community: Family Gathering

Empowering, connecting, and building opportunities for inclusive communities where people with disability thrive

Friday 30 May and Saturday 31 May 2025
Novotel Wollongong Northbeach

About the gathering

This is a unique opportunity to bring together people with disability and their families for meaningful conversations, shared experiences, and ideas to foster inclusive communities.

This event puts people with disability and their families at the heart of every conversation, ensuring all experiences and practical strategies help to advocate for inclusion and drive meaningful change in your community.

By connecting with others who understand the journey, you'll build lasting relationships and find mutual support that can encourage you a long the way.

Who is this for?

People with disability, their parents, partners, siblings, friends, extended family, circle members, and allies.

Don't miss out!

- Come together with a network of over 100 families across NSW.
- Share and gain insights from diverse perspectives.
- Exchange stories, support, and ideas with other families
- Meet and learn from others, led and guided by family facilitators
- Leave with actionable steps that will support the person with disability in your life to thrive.
