

IMAGINING

DISCOVERING

FINDING

School To Work for Secondary Students with Disability

resourcing
inclusive communities

An initiative of Family Advocacy

International presenter
Milton Tyree

Customised
Employment Works:
Making Employment
a Reality for People with Disability

2-day Workshop
Mon 19 & Tue 20
September

About the workshop

Customised Employment connects a job candidate's interests and contributions with business needs, opening the door to good employment for many people previously considered unemployable, as well as those whose employment options are limited by labour market job openings.

This workshop explores what needs to be in place for people with disability to have access to good jobs.

Content is grounded in Social Role Valorisation (SRV) theory and derived from Marc Gold & Associates concepts of Discovery, Customised Job Development and Systematic Instruction.

Monday 19 and Tuesday 20 September 9am - 4:30pm AEST

The Miller Hotel - 54 McLaren St, North Sydney

$85 families

$250 professionals

Registrations: www.ric.org.au/events

if cost is a barrier contact us to discuss options*

About the presenter

This workshop is facilitated by Milton Tyree, who is visiting from the United States. Please see page 2 for Milton's bio.

Who is this workshop for?

The workshop will be of particular interest to those seeking to explore the potential of employment for people with disability - family members, service providers, policy makers, educators and advocates.

What will be covered

- Supported Employment: Its Purpose, Evolution and Persistent Obstacles Needing Address
- Work Conditions, Interests and Contributions: An Introduction to Discovery
- The Role of the Employment Specialist: Discerning When to Get Involved and When to Step Aside
- Doing a Good Job of Getting a Good Job: An Introduction to Customised Employment and Job Development.

Questions? Call 1800 774 764

Email: info@ric.org.au

About the presenter

Milton Tyree, Project Associate for the University of Kentucky and owner of Milton Tyree Employment Consulting, LLC

Milton Tyree has more than 40 years of experience in the design, development and provision of supports and services centred on people with disabilities having access to valued aspects of everyday life. A particular area of interest has been the ongoing struggle around people with disabilities having good employment.

Milton's employment efforts have been strongly influenced by the work of the late Dr. Marc Gold, and he's an associate with Marc Gold & Associates (MG&A). He's also had extensive opportunities for study, work and teaching related to the late Dr. Wolf Wolfensberger's Social Role Valorisation (SRV) theory and its many implications for employment services. He is a retired project director of the University of Kentucky's Human Development Institute where he continues part-time work focused on open employment leadership development.

Most of Milton's career has been within his home state of Kentucky, but includes additional teaching opportunities in other US states, Canada, Ireland, India, Australia, and New Zealand.

School To Work
for Secondary Students
with Disability

resourcing
inclusive
communities
An initiative of Family Advocacy